

Twelve Things You Can Do by Christmas

1. Go to www.organizePace.org and sign the online petition to President Friedman.
2. Follow up with a phone call. Tell President Friedman that the Union of Pace Adjunct Faculty at Pace both need and deserve a fair contract now. The President's Hotline's number is, toll free, 866-722-3001.
3. "One reason it is important to me to support Pace University is to show my gratitude to the teachers and administrators who helped transform my life." -Aniello Bianco, Class of 1961. Call Mr. Bianco (now the Chair of Pace's Board of Trustees) and ask him how he can reconcile the above statement with his tacit (or active) agreement to fight UAFP for the last three years. Aniello ("Neil") Bianco's Somerset, NJ office: 732-560-8888, x408.
4. Are you an alum of Pace? Write alumni relations and explain to them you will not be able to contribute to Pace anymore until there is a fair contract for Pace's adjunct faculty and Pace stops wasting money on unionbusting. Please cc your letter to the union at uafp@nysutmail.org and forward us any response you get as well. Pace's alumni relations: pacealum3@pace.edu.
5. Sign up for UAFP's "Adjunct Advocate" mailing list so you get timely updates. Send your non-Pace email address to organize@nysutmail.org.
6. Speaking of signing up, are you an adjunct faculty member at Pace? If you haven't signed your union membership card please do so now. The more members we have, the stronger we are. Call 212-989-3470.
7. Are you a parent of a college bound high school junior or senior? Write Pace's admissions office and tell them you will have to "think twice" before you send your child to a school which wastes hundreds of thousands of dollars fighting its own employees' right to a fair contract. Email ugnyc@pace.edu or ugplv@pace.edu. Please cc all emails to uafp@nysutmail.org.
8. Visit AFT's blog FACE Talk at aftblog.blogs.com/face/ for updates on what's going on with Pace adjuncts and other contingent faculty across the country.
9. Call and write your local City Council Person (or Assembly Member or State Senator). Ask them if they've heard about the labor situation at Pace. Remind them that the University gets significant amounts of public monies and it's reprehensible for the Administration to waste that money (and tuition and alumni donations) on union-busting. To find out who your representatives are go to www.lwvny.org or www.watpa.org/lwv.
10. UAFP is also scheduling visits with local politicians. Each visit takes less than an hour of your time. Call UAFP (212-989-3470) to find out scheduled dates and times—so far we've found adjuncts paying a visit has been very helpful.
11. Pace University likes to keep its adjunct faculty isolated from one another—the less unity we have; the more difficult it is to get a contract. Commit to speaking to at least one of your colleagues at Pace today.

And finally, the twelfth thing you can do by Christmas:

Find out other ways you can help. Call the Union Office. 212-989-3470.
